Death of an Excellent Young Man. Death is always sad under any circumstances, but when it comes into our midst and cuts down a young man who is starting in life with the prospect of a bright, happy and prosperous future before him, it is exceedingly sad. Three weeks ago Mr. James A. Sadler was taken sick. His symptoms were not alarming until a few days ago, when his disease became complicated. All that could be done by loving hands and skillful physicians to arrest the disease was done, but in vain, and on Tuesday afternoon at half-past 2 o'clock he peacefully passed away.

Mr. Sadler was a member of the firm of Hill, Adams & Co., and had been a resident of Anderson for a number of years. He was a young man of noble traits of character and steady habits, for which he was highly esteemed by his acquaintances. Since his youth he had been a consistent member of the Methodist Church, and when the summons of death came he was ready to meet it. He was conscious up to within a few minutes of his death, and just before he died he called each member of his family to his side, and kissing them and bidding them good-bye, asked them to meet him in Heaven, after which he passed away, leaving a widow and three children. Just one year ago to the day Mr. Sadler lost a younger brother, and it is a little singular that he should be called away on the first anniversary of that sad occasion. Three months ago he was married to Miss Ottilie Latimer, of Lowndesville. Mr. Sadler was about 28 years of age. His young bride, mother, brother and sister have the deepest sympathy for our entire community in their bereavement.

His remains were interred in the Presbyterian cemetery on Wednesday morning, Rev. W. S. Wightman conducting the funeral services, in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives.
